

EXHIBITION OPENING

Gifts from Japan

A Horticultural Tale Told through Botanical Art

FRIDAY, MAY 13, 2022

5:30-8:00 PM

Program of Activities

Throughout the evening, please enjoy the art exhibition in the Pavilion Gallery and the Calvin and Mayho Tanabe Gallery.

Light appetizers and refreshments will be provided in the Jordan Schnitzer Japanese Arts Learning Center.

Special thanks to Guest Curator of the Exhibition Robert Hori,
the Huntington Library, Art Museum, and Botanical Gardens,
the Botanical Artists Guild of Southern California,
The Japanese American Museum of Oregon,
Sokaen Bunko, and guest botanical artists from Japan.

Tori Aoi
WINERY

Chef Naoko
natural and organic cuisine

Top right, Akiko Enokido, detail of Camellia 'Yukitsubaki', © 2015, watercolor on vellum.

Bottom left, Artist Unknown, detail of Japanese Iris from
The Yokohama Nursery Co., ink and color on paper.

5:45-6:00 PM

Ikebana demonstration
by Nana Bellerud
(Pavilion Veranda)

6:30 PM

Remarks by Board President
Drake Snodgrass
Arlene Schnitzer Curator of Culture,
Art, & Education Akihito Nakanishi
Guest Curator Robert Hori
(Jordan Schnitzer Japanese Arts Learning Center)

Music provided by Maido Mind